As Special Commissioner She Favors Stopping Immigration for Five Years.

NEW YORK, March 18 .- Declaring that the American people were oring dwinked by untrue stories of conditions in Europe, Lilian Russell, famous stage beauty, who was sent abroad as a special commissioner of immigration, said today that she would recommend in her report to Secretary of Labor James J. Davis that all immigration to this country stopped for a period of five years.

Miss Russell, who in private life
the wife of Alexander F. Moore, spoke of the immigration situa her eyes flashed. "I have a detailed report that will amaze Secretary of Labor Davis, the said today. "Our representatives at Washington have no real concepon of the immigration situation that
